Time for Holding Inquiry – The inquiry shall be commenced as soon as practicable after the filing of the petition, but not earlier than fourteen days after the day on which the poll was closed, and, not less than seven clear days' public notice shall be given of the time and place at which the inquiry will be held.

100. Powers of Court on Inquiry – For the purpose of the inquiry, the Court shall have and may exercise all the powers of citing parties, compelling evidence, adjourning from time to time and from place to place, and maintaining order that the Court would have in its ordinary jurisdiction, and, in addition, may at any time during the inquiry direct a recount or scrutiny of the votes given at the election, and shall disallow the vote of every person who -

- (a) has voted, not being entitled to vote; or
- (b) has voted for more than one candidate.

101. Certain Irregularities to be Disregarded – No election shall be declared void by reason of any irregularity in any of the proceedings preliminary to the polling or by reason of any failure to hold a poll at any place appointed for holding a poll, or to comply with the directions provided under this Act as to the taking of the poll or the counting of the votes or by reason of any mistake, in the use of the forms provided under this Act, if it appears to the Court that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in and by this Act and that the irregularity, failure or mistake did not affect the result of the poll.

102. Result of Inquiry – (1) The Court shall determine whether, by reason of some irregularity that in its opinion materially affected the result of the election, the election is void; or whether the candidate whose election is complained of, or any other candidate, was duly elected.

(2) The Court shall cause any determination under this section to be transmitted to the Chief Electoral Officer, who shall forthwith -

- (a) publicly notify any such determination;
- (b) where any election is determined to be void, declare the seat vacant pursuant to section 8 of this Act;
- (c) where any other candidate is determined to be elected, declare that candidate to be elected pursuant to section 73 of this Act, and revoke any warrant previously issued by him or her.

103. Persons Committing Irregularities to be Prosecuted – Where on any inquiry conducted under this part of this Act the Court is of the opinion that any irregularity has been wilfully committed by any person, the Court shall direct the Commissioner of Police to take proceedings for the prosecution of that person, who on conviction shall (unless some other penalty is elsewhere prescribed) be liable -

- (a) to a fine not exceeding $5000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, where the irregularity, in the opinion of the Court, materially affected the result of the election; or

- (b) to a fine not exceeding $1000, where the irregularity did not, in the opinion of the Court, materially affect the result but defeated the fairness of the election.

104. Costs of Inquiry - (1) The Court may order that the expenses of and incidental to the inquiry shall be borne either by any party to the inquiry, or, where the Court declares the election void on the grounds of or partly on the ground of any negligence or misfeasance on the part of any electoral official or any other person exercising any function at the election under this Act, may order that those expenses be borne by that official or other person; and that order shall have the same effect and may be enforced in like manner as if it were a judgement for a sum of money obtained in the Court:

Provided that no such order shall be made against any person other than the party to the inquiry, unless he or she has been summoned to attend and give evidence at the inquiry.

(2) Subject to any order made under subsection (1) of this section, the Court shall direct that the whole or part of the deposit accompanying any petition shall be returned to the person or persons who paid the same, unless the Court is of the opinion that the petitioner or petitioners have failed to establish the grounds specified in their petition, or any other grounds investigated by leave of the Court, in which case the deposit or the surplus remaining after satisfying the order shall be forfeited to the Crown.

105. Decision of High Court to be Final - (1) Every determination or order by the Court in respect of or connection with any proceedings under sections 25, 37, or 74 of this Act, or in respect of or in connection with an election petition shall be final and conclusive and without appeal.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), of this section where any party to any proceeding to which this section applies is dissatisfied with any decision of the Court as being erroneous in any point of law, that party may appeal to the Court of Appeal by way of case stated for the opinion of that Court on a question of law only.

(3) In its determination of the appeal, the Court of Appeal may confirm, modify or reverse the decision appealed against or any part of that decision.

(4) Notice of appeal shall not operate as a stay of proceedings in respect of the decision to which the appeal relates unless the Court or the Court of Appeal so orders.

(5) The determination of the Court of Appeal on any appeal to which this section applies shall be final and conclusive and without further appeal.

106. Court of Appeal may refer Appeals back for Reconsideration - (1) Notwithstanding anything in section 105 of this Act, the Court of Appeal may, instead of determining the appeal to which section 105 applies, direct the Court to reconsider, either generally or in respect of any specified matter, the whole or any specific part of the matter to which the appeal relates.

(2) In giving any direction under this section the Court of Appeal shall:

- (a) advise the Court of its reasons for so doing; and
- (b) give to the Court such directions as it thinks just as to the rehearing or reconsideration or otherwise of the whole or any part of the matter that is referred back for rehearing or reconsideration.

(3) In rehearing or reconsidering any matter referred back to it pursuant to this section, the Court shall have regard to the Court of Appeal's reasons for giving a direction under subsection (1) of this section, and the Court of Appeal's directions under subsection (2) of this section.
