BE it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Territory of Papua, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. (1) This Ordinance may be cited as the Aliens Ordinance, 1919. Short title and citation.

(2) The Aliens Ordinance, 1911, is in this Ordinance referred to as the Principal Ordinance.

(3) The Principal Ordinance as amended by this Ordinance may be cited as the Aliens Ordinance, 1911-1919.

2. Section ten of the Principal Ordinance is repealed and the following section inserted in its stead:—

“10 (1) Where—

(a) it is proved to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor that a certificate of naturalization has been obtained by any untrue statement of fact or intention; or

(b) the Lieutenant-Governor is satisfied that it is desirable for any reason that a certificate of naturalization should be revoked

Revocation of certificate.

Cwilt. No. 11 of 1903, s. 11; 25 of 1917, s. 7.

(a) Date assented to by the Governor-General. Assent notified in Gazette No. 5 of 7th April, 1920.

the Lieutenant-Governor may revoke the certificate which shall thereupon be and be taken to have been of no effect with respect either to the person who obtained the certificate or to any person naturalized by virtue thereof and shall on demand be delivered up to the Government Secretary.

(2) Where a certificate of naturalization is revoked the Lieutenant-Governor may by order declare that the wife of the person whose certificate is revoked and any minor children of that person who have acquired British nationality pursuant to this Ordinance shall cease to be British subjects and such persons shall thereupon become aliens but save as in this subsection provided the nationality of the wife and minor children of a person whose certificate is revoked shall not be affected by the revocation and they shall remain British subjects :

Provided that it shall be lawful for any such wife within six months after the date of the order of revocation to make a declaration of alienage and on making that declaration she and any minor children of her husband and herself who have acquired British nationality pursuant to this Ordinance shall cease to be British subjects and shall become aliens :

Provided further that it shall be lawful for any such minor child within six months after attaining the age of twenty-one years to make a declaration of alienage and thereupon he shall cease to be a British subject and shall become an alien."

Passed in Council this twenty-fourth day of December, in the year of Our Lord One thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor-General, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council of the Commonwealth of Australia, on the first day of March, One thousand nine hundred and twenty.
