AN ACT

entitled

Seamen (Unemployment Indemnity) Act 1951,

Being an Act to give effect to a draft convention adopted by the International Labour Conference at Genoa on 9 July 1920, relating to unemployment indemnity for seamen in the case of loss or foundering of their ship.

1. INTERPRETATION.

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

“owner” includes a person with whom the seaman has contracted for service on board the vessel;

“seamen” includes any person employed or engaged in any capacity on board a vessel engaged in maritime navigation, but in the case of a vessel that is a fishing boat does not include a person who is entitled to share in the profits or the gross earnings of the working of the vessel;

“vessel” includes any ship or boat of any kind registered in Papua New Guinea, but does not include a vessel of war.

2. UNEMPLOYMENT INDEMNITY.

(1) Notwithstanding anything in any other law, where by reason of the wreck or loss of a vessel on which a seaman is employed his service terminates before the date contemplated in the agreement, he is entitled, in respect of each day on which he is in fact unemployed during a period of two months from the date of the termination of the service, to receive wages at the rate to which he was entitled at that date.

(2) A seaman is not entitled to receive wages under this section if the owner shows—

(a) that the unemployment was not due to the wreck or loss of the vessel; or

s. 3.
