- (a) in the form prescribed in Schedule 2;
 - (b) sent to the Provincial Secretary; and
 - (c) accompanied by the fee prescribed in Schedule 5.

- (3) Subject to section 18 each type of business operating within or on premises must be separately licensed.
- (4) No person may apply for a business licence if:
 - (a) they have outstanding business licence fees owing to the province;
 - (b) they have not obtained the required national licences, permits, or permissions;
 - (c) in the case of foreign investment, they are carrying out business in a reserved or prohibited area; or
 - (d) they are conducting business in contravention of any National or Provincial law or policy.

7. Applications for mining and logging operations

- (1) Applications relating to mining and logging operations must be accompanied by copies of the following:
 - (a) the business's national licence issued by the Director of Mines and/or the Commissioner of Forest Resources;
 - (b) Approval from the Director of the Environment and Conservation Division to carry out the activities described in the business licence application and to which the national licence relate;
 - (c) a copy of the company's Environmental Impact Assessment; and
 - (d) any other documentation and information that the Provincial Executive may require in order to assess the potential impact of the activities for which a licence is sought.
- (2) No licence shall be issued for mining and logging operations until and unless the information in subsection(1) is provided.

8. Decisions about applications

- (1) All applications shall be referred to the Provincial Executive who shall:
 - (a) approve the application;
 - (b) decline the application; or
 - (c) approve the application subject to any terms and conditions imposed under section 19.
- (2) When considering any application under subsection (1), the Executive may take into account:
 - (a) the extent of involvement in the business by the people indigenous to Rennell and Bellona Province and resident in the locality where the business is intended to be carried out;
 - (b) the contribution to services to the people of Rennell and Bellona Province;
 - (c) the geographical area served by the business; or
 - (d) any other matter or matters affecting the interests of the people of Rennell and Bellona and their environment.

- (3) If the Executive is considering declining an application under subsection 1(b), it must first give the applicant:
 - (a) notice of the reasons that the application might be declined; and
 - (b) a reasonable opportunity to make a submission or be heard on the matter.

9. Executive may impose terms and conditions

- (1) The Executive may impose any terms and conditions on a business licence that it considers reasonable in the circumstances.
- (2) If the Executive is considering imposing a term and condition under subsection (1), it must first give the applicant:
 - (i) notice of the reasons why the terms and condition might be imposed; and
 - (ii) a reasonable opportunity to make a submission or be heard on the matter.
- (3) The Executive may by written notice remove, amend, revoke, or add to any term and condition imposed under subsection (1).

10. Person deemed to hold a licence from receipt of application

An applicant is deemed to hold a licence from the date that their application is received by the Provincial Secretary or Authorised Officer.

11. Duration of licence

A licence has effect from the date that it is issued until 31 March following date of issue.

12. Classification of business

- (1) The Provincial Secretary shall in the first instance determine the classification of business to which the application relates.
- (2) If the applicant disputes the determination made by the Provincial Secretary under subsection (1), the applicant may apply to the Executive for reconsideration of the determination and may make written or oral submissions in support of their application.

13. Form of licence

- (1) Upon approval by the Executive or a person authorised under section 20, the applicant shall be issued a business licence in the form prescribed in Schedule 3.
- (2) The production of this document or a certified copy issued under section 17, shall be proof that the licence has been properly granted.

14. Register of business licences

- (1) The Provincial Treasurer shall keep a register of all:
 - (a) applications for a business licence;
 - (b) decisions made in respect of each application; and
 - (c) licences issued under this Ordinance.
- (2) The register must be open for public inspection during normal working hours at the place where it is kept.
