In addition to his duties as manager he shall also perform the duties of Secretary to the Board. (Amended by Act 21 of 1976.)

(2) The manager shall be paid by the Commission such salary and allowances as the Board determines. (Amended by Act 21 of 1976.)

Termination of appointment.

10. If the manager—

- (a) becomes permanently incapable of performing his duties,
- (b) becomes bankrupt or compounds with his creditors, or makes an assignment (other than an assignment or mortgage to the Government) of his salary for their benefit, or
- (c) resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Chairman, the Board shall terminate his appointment. (Amended by Act 21 of 1976.)

PART III.—THE COMMISSION—POWERS AND DUTIES

Duties.

11. It shall be the duty of the Commission to set up, commence and maintain a broadcasting service as a means of information, education and entertainment and to develop the service to the best advantage and interest of the Kingdom.

Powers.

12. The Commission has such powers as necessary for the purposes of this Act, in particular, and in addition to any other powers conferred on it by this Act, has power to—

- (a) purchase or otherwise acquire and hold any personal property required for the purposes of this Act and may dispose of any such personal property no longer required for such purpose;
- (b) purchase or acquire any leasehold interest in land or take on lease any land for the purpose of this Act;
- (c) erect, equip and maintain plant, buildings, stations and equipment necessary for broadcasting, and for otherwise carrying out the purposes of this Act;
- (d) engage, employ, pay and dismiss such officers and staff as it deems necessary for the conduct of its business, in accordance with the provisions of this Act;
- (e) provide for persons in its employ or their dependants by means of insurance, pension or provident fund or otherwise, pecuniary benefits upon retirement, death or termination of service or in the event of illness;

- (f) enter into contracts for the supply of services essential to broadcasting;
- (g) provide broadcasting facilities for commercial and social activities including broadcasting of advertisements and make charges therefor;
- (h) compile and prepare, print, publish, issue, circulate and distribute, whether free or otherwise, such papers, magazines, periodicals, books and other literary matter as may seem conducive to the objects of the Commission;
- (i) make payment, otherwise authorized, to the Chairman and other members of the Board in respect of expenses incurred by them in attending meetings of the Commission and in carrying out their duties;
- (j) impose licence fees upon radio listeners;
- (k) restrain trade to the extent of monopolizing to itself the right to trade in radio receiving sets and other such machinery and apparatus or parts thereof used in connection with broadcasting, and may also reserve to itself the exclusive right to hiring, repairing and in any way dealing with such goods aforesaid.

13. Subject to this Act, the Board has power to determine the policy of the Commission in relation to any matter, and to control the affairs of the Commission. Policy.

14. (1) The Prime Minister may by notice in writing require the Commission to include in any programme broadcast of the Commission such items of general interest or utility as the Prime Minister may from time to time determine: Prime Minister may require broadcasts.

Provided that the requirements of the Prime Minister under this section shall not be such as to entail the broadcasting of matter for a period in excess of 30 minutes in any period of 12 consecutive hours.

(2) The Commission may take charges for broadcasts required under this section in accordance with the usual rate of charges made for commercial broadcasts.

15. The Cabinet may by notice in writing delivered at the principal office of the Commission prohibit the Commission from broadcasting any matter or matter of any class or character specified in the notice. Cabinet may prohibit certain matters.

16. The Commission may with the approval of the Legislative Assembly borrow such sums as it may require for meeting its obligations and discharging its functions under this Act, but the total amount of money borrowed shall not exceed the sum of $200,000. The money may be borrowed from the Government or from such Power to borrow money.

other persons and upon such terms and conditions as may be approved by Privy Council.

Accounts. 17. (1) The Commission shall keep proper accounts and other records in relation thereto and shall prepare in respect of each financial year a statement of accounts.

(2) The accounts of the Commission shall be audited annually by an auditor to be appointed annually by the Commission. (Amended by Act 21 of 1976.)

(3) As soon as the accounts have been audited, the Commission shall forward a copy of the statement of accounts referred to in subsection (1), to the Prime Minister, together with a copy of any report made by the auditor on that statement of accounts or on the accounts of the Commission.

(4) The accounts of the Commission, as soon as may be after the close of each financial year and after audit, shall be published in such manner as the Cabinet decides.

Annual report. 18. (1) The Board shall as soon as practicable after the date of the close of each financial year prepare a report on the operations of the Commission during the year ending on that day, and furnish the report to the Prime Minister. (Amended by Acts 9 of 1964 and 21 of 1976.)

(2) The Prime Minister shall cause a copy of the report of the Commission to be laid before the Legislative Assembly after he receives the report.

Pensions of government officers transferred. 19. In the event of any person employed by the Government in any pensionable office being transferred to the service of the Commission with the consent of the Cabinet and the Board, then such person shall retain all rights and privileges accrued to him under the Pensions Act and any regulations made thereunder, and on attaining the age provided by the Pensions Act and any regulations made thereunder may retire with his pension rights undiminished or affected according to law in that regard as if he had completed his service with the Government.

Regulations. 20. The Prime Minister with the consent of Cabinet may make regulations not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matters which by this Act are required or permitted to be prescribed, or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act, or for the conduct of business of the Commission, and in particular prescribing penalties which shall not exceed $200 for an offence against the regulations.
