

REPUBLIC OF VANUATU

BILL FOR
THE MARITIME ZONES ACT No. 23 OF 1981

Explanatory Note

This law provides for the territorial sea and exclusive economic zone of Vanuatu. It also provides for ancillary matters like internal waters, the contiguous zone, the continental shelf and the archipelagic waters.

The territorial sea will extend 12 miles from the islands of Vanuatu and in that zone and in the internal waters and the archipelagic waters the laws of Vanuatu including the criminal laws will apply. Under section 6 foreign ships may pass through the territorial seas and the archipelagic waters in accordance with international practice. The archipelagic waters and internal waters together are the waters between the islands of and in the bays of Vanuatu.

A contiguous zone will extend another 12 miles out from the boundary of the territorial sea. In that area Vanuatu may make arrangements to enforce customs, tax, immigration and health laws.

The continental shelf is the extension of the land of Vanuatu under the sea. This is small but the law for technical reasons makes it extend not less than 200 miles from Vanuatu.

Section 9 provides for an exclusive economic zone to extend 200 miles all round Vanuatu.

Under section 10 Vanuatu claims rights of exploration, building, controlling research, protection of the environment and other rights recognised by international law and practice in the continental shelf and economic zone.

However under section 9 the Minister can declare that any area shall not be part of the exclusive economic zone. This is mainly for the purpose of adjusting the limits of the zone to comply with any agreements with neighbouring states.

Section 11 stipulates that persons who wish to exploit resources, carry out research or do other specified things must do so under the authority of an agreement or licence from a Minister.

Under section 12 a person may be fined up to 1,000,000 vatu or imprisoned for up to 5 years for a contravention of this law. The fine is the highest fine so far provided for in a law.

The Schedule sets out the points from which the zones provided for in the law are measured.

The law has been drafted so that it complies generally with the latest draft Convention on the Law of the Sea.

SCHEDULE

ARCHIPELAGIC BASELINE

REPUBLIC OF VANUATU

BILL FOR
THE MARITIME ZONES ACT No. OF 1981

To provide for the delimitation of the maritime zones of the Republic, and other matters incidental thereto.

Be it enacted by the President and Parliament as follows :-

PART 1 - INTERPRETATION

Interpretation.

1. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires -

"bay" means an indentation of the coast with an area of not less than that of the semi-circle the diameter of which is a line drawn across the mouth of the indentation;

"island" means a naturally formed area of land, surrounded by water, which is above water at high tide;

"low waterline" means the relevant low water datum line shown on the latest relevant British Admiralty Charts or where there is no such datum the lowest astronomical tide line. In any case where there is doubt as to which is the latest relevant British Admiralty Chart for the purposes of this definition the Minister may establish which is such chart by declaration published in the Gazette;

"nautical mile" means an international nautical mile of 1852 metres.

PART 2 - INTERNAL WATERS

Internal Waters.

2. The internal waters of Vanuatu comprise all waters that are contained within the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial sea is measured or for areas enclosed by straight archipelagic baselines, all waters that are contained within the innermost limits of the archipelagic waters.

PART 3 - ARCHIPELAGIC WATERS AND TERRITORIAL SEA

Sovereignty of Vanuatu.

3. The sovereignty of Vanuatu extends beyond the land and internal waters of its islands to the archipelagic waters and territorial sea and to the airspace thereover as well as to the seabed and subsoil thereunder.

Archipelagic waters.

4. (1) The archipelagic waters comprise all waters other than internal waters contained within the archipelagic baseline as delimited in the Schedule.
- (2) The innermost limits of the archipelagic waters shall be -
- (a) the low water line; or
 - (b) in the case of the sea adjacent to a bay -
 - (i) where the bay has only one mouth and the distance between the low-water lines of the natural entrance points of the bay does not exceed 24 nautical miles, along a closing line joining those low-water lines;
 - (ii) where because of the presence of islands the bay has more than one mouth and the distance between the low-water lines of the natural entrance points of each mouth added together, do not exceed 24 nautical miles along a series of closing lines across each of the mouths so as to join those low-water lines;
 - (iii) where neither paragraph (a) nor paragraph (b) applies, along a closing line 24 nautical miles in length drawn from low-water line to low-water line within the bay in such a manner as to enclose the maximum area of water that is possible with a line of that length; and
 - (c) in the case of the mouth or each mouth of a river which flows into the sea, a closing line across the river mouth between points on the low-water line of its banks.

Territorial Sea.

5. (1) The territorial sea comprises all areas of sea having as their innermost limits the baselines described in sub-section (2) and as their outermost limits, a line measured seaward from those baselines, every point of which is 12 nautical miles from the nearest point of the appropriate baseline.
- (2) The baselines from which the territorial sea is measured shall be the archipelagic baseline and the low water line of the coast of Matthew Island and Hunter Island.

Rights of Passage.

6. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, all foreign ships may enjoy the right of innocent passage through the archipelagic waters and territorial sea.

- (2) The Minister may, after consultation with the Minister responsible for transport and communications, by order published in the Gazette, designate sea lanes and air routes, suitable for the continuous and expeditious passage of foreign ships and aircraft through or over the archipelagic waters and territorial sea and may also prescribe traffic separation schemes for the purpose of ensuring the safe passage of ships through narrow channels in such sea lanes.

PART 4 - CONTIGUOUS ZONE

Contiguous Zone.

7. (1) The contiguous zone is an area beyond and adjacent to the territorial sea having as its outermost limits a line measured seaward from the baselines from which the territorial sea is measured, every point of which is 24 nautical miles from the nearest point of the appropriate baseline.
- (2) Vanuatu may exercise such powers and take such measures in relation to the contiguous zone as may be necessary in order to prevent or punish infringements of its customs, fiscal immigration or sanitary laws.

PART 5 - THE CONTINENTAL SHELF AND EXCLUSIVE ECONOMIC ZONE

Continental Shelf.

8. The continental shelf comprises the seabed and subsoil of the submarine areas that extend beyond the limits of the territorial waters throughout the natural prolongation of the land territory of Vanuatu -
- (a) to the outer edge of the continental margin; or
- (b) to a distance of 200 nautical miles from the baseline from which the territorial sea is measured where the outer edge of the continental shelf does not extend up to that distance.

Exclusive Economic Zone.

9. (1) The exclusive economic zone comprises those areas of the sea, seabed, and sub-soil that are beyond and adjacent to the territorial sea having as their outermost limits a line measured seaward from the baselines from which the territorial sea is measured, every point of which line is 200 nautical miles from the nearest point of the appropriate baseline.
- (2) For the purposes of implementing any international agreement or otherwise, the Minister may by order published in the Gazette declare that the exclusive economic zone shall not extend to any specified area of the sea, seabed, or sub-soil, that would otherwise be included within the exclusive economic zone by virtue of this section.

Vanuatu rights over continental shelf and exclusive economic zone.

10.

Without prejudice to Sections 3, 7 and 8 Vanuatu has in the continental shelf and exclusive economic zone -

- (a) sovereign rights for the purposes of exploration, exploitation, conservation and management of all resources;
