(8) A Fa'amasino Fesoasoani must order the transfer of any criminal proceeding which is not within the limits of jurisdiction prescribed by this section, to be heard and determined by a Judge.

(9) Written notice of any decision made to transfer proceedings under this section must be given by the Registrar to the Prosecution and the defendant, as soon as the order is made to transfer proceedings.

PART 4
TRANSFER OF PROCEEDINGS

31. Transfer of civil proceedings when limit is exceeded - (1)

A Judge has authority to order the transfer of civil proceedings which have been commenced in the District Court to be heard and determined in the Supreme Court only if all of the following circumstances apply:

- (a) it becomes apparent that the claim or value of the property claimed, exceeds the monetary limit prescribed for a Judge under Part 3;
- (b) the plaintiff does not agree to abandon the part of his or her claim which exceeds the limit;
- (c) the parties do not agree that the Judge should proceed to hear and determine the matter.

(2) In addition to the grounds for transfer under subsection (1), a Judge has authority to order that proceedings commenced in the District Court be transferred for hearing and determination in the Supreme Court if it becomes apparent that any aspect of the claim, or any issue relevant to it, is outside the jurisdiction of the District Court for any reason that is not related to the monetary limits imposed under Part 3.

(3) If it appears to a Judge that the plaintiff or one of the plaintiffs knew or ought to have known that the Court had no jurisdiction in the proceedings, the Judge has authority to order that the proceedings be struck out, and in such event the Judge has authority to award costs to the same extent and recoverable in the same manner as if the Court had jurisdiction and the claim had not been established.

(4) Written notice of any decision made to transfer proceedings under this section must be given by the Registrar to any party who is not present or represented in court at the time that the order is made, or if the order is made in the absence of the parties.

32. Transfer of proceedings by Fa'amasino Fesoasoani - (1)

A Fa'amasino Fesoasoani has authority to order the transfer of civil proceedings to be heard and determined by a Judge only if all of the following circumstances apply:

- (a) it becomes apparent that the claim or value of the property claimed, exceeds the monetary limit prescribed for a Fa'amasino Fesoasoani under Part 3;
- (b) the plaintiff does not agree to abandon the part of his or her claim which exceeds the limit; and
- (c) the parties do not agree that the Fa'amasino Fesoasoani should proceed to hear and determine the matter.

(2) In addition to the grounds for transfer under subsection (1), a Fa'amasino Fesoasoani has authority to order that proceeding be transferred for hearing and determination by a Judge if it becomes apparent that any aspect of the claim, or any issue relevant to it, is outside the jurisdiction of the Fa'amasino Fesoasoani for any reason, not related to the monetary limits imposed under Part 3.

(3) If it appears to a Fa'amasino Fesoasoani that the plaintiff or one of the plaintiffs knew or ought to have known that the Fa'amasino Fesoasoani or the District Court had no jurisdiction in the proceedings, the Fa'amasino Fesoasoani has authority to order that the proceedings be struck out, and in such event the Fa'amasino Fesoasoani has authority to award costs to the same extent and recoverable in the same manner as if the Court had jurisdiction and the claim had not been established.

(4) Written notice of any decision made to transfer proceedings under this section must be given by the Registrar to any party who is not present or represented in court at the time that the order is made, or if the order is made in the absence of the parties.

33. Transfer of proceedings where there is a counterclaim -

(1) If a counterclaim, or set-off and counterclaim, involves a matter beyond the jurisdiction of the District Court, a Judge has authority to make any of the following orders:

- (a) that the whole proceedings be transferred to the Supreme Court;
- (b) that the whole proceedings be heard and determined in the District Court, if the defendant abandons the part of the counterclaim or set off which exceeds the limits of the Court's jurisdiction, or the parties agree to the matter being heard and determined by the District Court; and

(c) that the proceedings on the counterclaim or set-off and counterclaim be transferred to the Supreme Court and that the proceedings on the plaintiff's claim be heard and determined in the District Court.

(2) If an order is made under subsection (1)(c), and judgment on the claim is given for the plaintiff, execution on that judgment is stayed until the proceedings transferred to the Supreme Court have been determined, unless the Supreme Court makes an order that execution can proceed.

(3) If no order is made under this section and a counterclaim or set off exceeds the monetary limits of the District Court during the hearing and determination of the proceedings the defendant is deemed to have abandoned the amount which exceeds the limit.

(4) If the Supreme Court makes any order under this section, the Registrar of the Supreme Court must send to the Registrar of the District Court a copy of the order.

34. Transfer of proceedings from Supreme Court to District Court - (1) If civil proceedings have been commenced in the Supreme Court which concern a subject-matter that is within the jurisdiction of the District Courts, the Supreme Court has authority to order that the proceedings be transferred to the District Court.

(2) If proceedings are ordered to be transferred under subsection (1), a sealed order to that effect must be sent to the Registrar of the District Court, together with all documents filed in the Supreme Court relating to the proceedings.

(3) When the requirements of subsection (2) are complied with, the proceedings are to be regarded as if they had been originally commenced in the District Court which has jurisdiction to deal with the proceedings.

(4) The transfer of proceedings under this section does not affect any right of appeal against the order directing the transfer, or the right to enforce in the Supreme Court any judgment signed or order made in the Supreme Court before the transfer.

35. Costs in transferred cases - (1) Subject to subsection (2), if a matter is ordered to be transferred pursuant to this Part, the costs of the whole proceedings (both before and after the transfer) are to be determined by the Court to which the proceedings are transferred, subject to any order made by the Court which ordered the transfer.

(2) The costs associated with any part of the proceedings in an action transferred from the Supreme Court to the District Court which have taken place in the Supreme Court before the transfer, are subject to the Rules of the Supreme Court, and to the relevant scale of costs in the Supreme Court, unless the Supreme Court orders otherwise.

- (a) any legal person with legal capacity;
- (b) any duly appointed trustee, executor or administrator may sue and be sued in the Court as if he or she were a party in his or her own right, without joining any of the beneficiaries of the trust or estate, and in such proceedings the trustee, executor or administrator is deemed to be representative of the beneficiaries in the action;
- (c) any beneficiary of a trust or estate who is ordered by a Judge to be a party in any relevant proceedings;

37. Persons jointly liable - (1) If a plaintiff has a claim recoverable under this Act against 2 or more persons who are jointly liable, it is sufficient to serve any of those persons with the proceedings, and judgment can be obtained and execution issued against any person so served, even if the other persons who are jointly liable have not been served or sued, or may not be within the jurisdiction of the Court.

(2) If judgment is obtained against any person in accordance with subsection (1) and is satisfied either in part or for the whole amount by that person, he or she is entitled to take proceedings taken in the District Court to recover contribution from any other person who is jointly liable.

38. Proceedings against absent defendant - The Court has authority to hear and determine any civil proceedings against a defendant who is absent from Samoa if it is satisfied of either of the following:

- (a) that service has been effected on the defendant in accordance with the Rules; or
- (b) that the defendant has a duly appointed agent in Samoa authorised to sue and be sued on his or her behalf, and service has been effected on the agent in accordance with the Rules.

Division 2 - General matters of procedure

39. Right of appearance - (1) Unless otherwise provided by any other law, a party to any civil proceedings may appear and act personally or be represented by a barrister or solicitor of the Supreme Court of Samoa.

(2) In special circumstances the Court has authority to permit any party to appear by an agent authorised in writing by the party, or by any person holding a power of attorney from the party authorising such person to sue and be sued for and in the name of the party.

(3) A person who is permitted to represent a party under subsection (2) is not entitled to receive any fee or payment for so appearing or acting, unless he or she is a barrister or solicitor.

(4) A corporation is entitled to appear and be represented by any officer of the corporation, or by a duly appointed attorney or agent of the corporation.

(5) Nothing in this section prevents a Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani from permitting any person to appear before the Court on behalf of a party on an amicus curiae basis, if the interests of justice are served by the appearance.

40. Compelling witnesses - (1) A person who is summoned as a witness in a Court in any civil proceedings and who does either of the following:

(a) refuses or neglects, without sufficient cause, to appear or to produce any document or thing required by the summons to be produced; or

(2) A witness who is summoned must be given sufficient money at the time of service, or at any time prior to the date of hearing, to enable that person to meet the expense of travelling to the court.

(3) A witness who has been summoned as a witness and who refuses or neglects to appear, is to be regarded as having had sufficient cause if he or she establishes to the satisfaction of the Court that no money was given or tendered as required by subsection (2).

(4) A person present in Court who is called upon to give evidence but refuses to be sworn or give evidence, whether or not he or she has been summoned or paid or tendered expenses, commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding 500 penalty units, or to a term of imprisonment of up to 3 months, or both.

(5) The payment of a fine imposed under subsection (4), or the undergoing of a term of imprisonment for non-payment of such fine, does not exempt a person from any action for disobeying a summons or refusing to be sworn or give evidence.

41. Witness expenses - (1) In any civil proceedings, a witness attending a Court upon a witness summons, and any other person giving evidence in the course of the proceedings, is entitled to have his or her expenses paid by the party for whom the evidence is given.

(2) The amount of expenses to be paid to a witness is to be assessed in accordance with any applicable scale, or as otherwise determined as being reasonable by the Court.

(3) The Court may disallow the whole or any part of such sum.

42. Evidence by affidavit or affirmation - (1) An affidavit or affirmation to be used in a Court may be sworn or made before any District Court Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani or before any person authorised by law, but must not be a solicitor engaged in the proceedings.

(2) The Rules of Court may provide for the admission of an affidavit or affirmation sworn or made out of Samoa before any person authorised in the Rules.

43. Evidence of witness out of Court - (1) On application of a party, the Court has authority to make an order for the taking of the evidence on oath, before any officer of the Court or any other person or persons, and at any place either in or out of Samoa, of any witness, if it appears necessary in the interests of justice.

(2) A Court may order any deposition taken in accordance with subsection (1) to be filed in the Court, and has authority to empower any party to the proceeding to give such deposition in evidence at the proceeding, on such terms as the Court directs.

44. Other matters of civil procedure - Regulations made under this Act, or the Rules of Court, may make provision in relation to all or any of the following:

- (a) summons to witnesses, and any other matter relevant to compelling witnesses or the production of documents;

- (b) giving evidence by way of affidavit in any circumstances, and in relation to any stage or aspect of civil proceedings;
- (c) interpleader proceedings;
- (d) referring any matter, or any issue arising in any civil proceedings to an arbitrator or referee;

- (i) the authority of a Judge to set aside proceedings of Fa'amasino Fesoasoani;
- (j) the authority of a Judge to set aside an order or decision of a Registrar; or
- (k) any other matters of civil procedure that are not inconsistent with this Act.

Division 3 - Judgments and orders

45. Effect of judgments and orders - (1) A judgment or order of a District Court is final and conclusive between the parties, unless it is modified or set aside in accordance with the law.

(2) A judgment or order relating to a sum of money may be for the total sum payable, or require payment in instalments, and may require the payment to be made immediately, or at any other time that the Court determines.

(3) Unless an order is made under subsection (2) for payment to be made on specific terms, a judgment or order for the payment of a sum of money is deemed to be an order for the immediate payment of the whole amount payable under the judgment or order.

46. Enforcement of judgments - (1) A judgment or order of a Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani for the payment of a sum of money may be enforced by any 1 or more of the following types of proceedings:

- (a) execution against the goods and chattels of the judgment debtor under a writ of sale;
- (b) garnishee proceedings for the attachment of money due to the judgment debtor;
- (c) proceedings under the Judgment Summonses Act 1965, or any other applicable law; or
- (d) any other type of proceedings prescribed by Regulations or the Rules of Court.

(2) If any judgment or order of a Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani requires a party to do or refrain from doing any act (other than the payment of a sum of money, or relating to the recovery of land or for the delivery of specific chattels), the judgment or order may be enforced by a warrant of commitment to prison signed by a Judge for a term not exceeding 3 months.

(3) A judgment or order for the recovery of land may be enforced under a writ for the recovery of the land.

(4) A judgment or order for the delivery of specific chattels may be enforced, by order of a Judge, either under a warrant for the recovery of the chattels or by a warrant of commitment to prison signed by a Judge for a term not exceeding 3 months.

(5) Except by leave of a Judge, no proceedings for the enforcement of a judgment or order are to be commenced in any Court until after the expiry of 48 hours from the time of the giving of the judgment or the making of the order.

(6) If the judgment or order is one which may be appealed against without the leave of the Court, a Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani has authority to order a stay of any enforcement proceedings until the time allowed for giving a notice of appeal has expired.

(7) Two or more proceedings for the enforcement of a judgment or order may be taken concurrently, but the judgment creditor is not entitled to recover a greater sum than the amount owing under the judgment or order, and the costs and fees of any proceedings for enforcement.

(8) If a Judge is satisfied that any person committed to prison pursuant to this section ought to be discharged for any reason, the Judge has authority to order the person's discharge upon such terms (including liability to re-arrest if the terms are not complied with) as the Judge determines.

(9) Regulations or Rules of Court may make provision in relation to any power or process relevant to the enforcement of judgments and orders, including any matter related to any of the following:

- (a) any procedure, process or requirement related to a writ of sale;
- (b) the powers of a bailiff in relation to bills of exchange and other financial securities;

- (i) any procedure, process or requirement related to garnishee proceedings;
- (j) any procedure, process or requirement related to proceedings for the recovery of land;
- (k) issues relevant to irregularities in the execution of writs for the recovery of land, and liability arising from any illegal use of such a writ;

- (l) any procedure, process or requirement related to the recovery of chattels, and the right to take further proceedings if chattels are not recovered under a writ;
- (m) dealing with absconding defendants whether or not judgment or order has been made; or
- (n) entitlements to compensation arising from execution process.

47. Time limit for enforcement of judgments - (1) No proceedings for the enforcement of a judgment or order of the Court which is more than 6 years old can be issued, except with the leave of the Court, or unless some payment has been made by or on behalf of the party liable to make payment, within the 12 months immediately before the issue of the proceedings for enforcement.

(2) The Court has authority to give leave under subsection (1) on an ex parte application.

48. Enforcement of order for payment by instalments - (1) If the Court has made an order for the payment of any sum of money by instalments, proceedings for the enforcement of the order must not be taken or issued until after default in the payment of an instalment due under the order.

(2) On any such default, proceedings or successive proceedings may be taken or issued for the whole of the said sum of money and costs then remaining unpaid, unless the Court on the application of the party liable orders otherwise.

49. Proceedings on cross-judgments - (1) If there are cross-judgments between the parties, proceedings for enforcement may be taken out only by that party who has obtained judgment for the larger sum, and only for so much as remains after deducting the smaller sum.

(2) Satisfaction for the remainder must be entered as well as satisfaction on the judgment for the smaller sum, and if both sums are equal, satisfaction must be entered upon both.

50. Power to stay proceedings for enforcement - (1) If it appears to a Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani that a party is unable to pay a sum recoverable against him or her (whether by way of satisfaction of the claim or counterclaim in the proceedings or by way of costs or otherwise), or any instalment which has been ordered to be paid, the Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani has authority to do either of the following:

- (a) to vary the judgment or order so as to provide for payment by instalments; or
- (b) to suspend or stay the proceedings for such time and on such terms as the Court determines.

(2) The powers under subsection (1) can be exercised from time to time until it appears that the party is able to make payment.

Division 4 - Appeals

51. Right to appeal - (1) A party to any civil proceedings may appeal to the Supreme Court against any non-suit or final determination or direction of the District Court:

- (a) without the leave of the District Court if the amount of the claim or the value of the property or relief claimed or in issue exceeds $2,000, or if the title to any freehold land has come in question; and
- (b) with the leave of the District Court if the amount of the claim or the value of the property or relief claimed or in issue does not exceed $2,000.

(2) No right of appeal will apply under this section if the parties agreed in writing, before the determination or direction, that the judgment of the Court would be final and conclusive.

52. Notice of appeal - (1) Every appeal to the Supreme Court must be brought by notice of appeal lodged with the Registrar of the Supreme Court.

(2) The notice of appeal may specify that the appeal relates to the whole or any specified part of the non-suit or final determination or direction.

(3) A copy of the notice of appeal must be served on all parties directly affected by the appeal, either before or immediately after the notice of motion is lodged in the Supreme Court, and it is not necessary to serve a party who is not affected by the appeal.

(4) The Supreme Court has authority to direct that the notice of appeal be served on all or any parties to the proceedings, or upon any person who is not a party, and may adjourn the hearing of the appeal on such terms as the Court determines for service to be effected.

(5) A person who is served with a notice of appeal less than 14 clear days before the date of the hearing of the appeal has a right to apply for an adjournment on that ground.

(6) A copy of the notice of appeal must be lodged with the Registrar of the District Court either before or immediately after the notice of motion is lodged in the Supreme Court.

53. Time for appeal - An appeal must commence within 21 days from the day on which the non-suit or final determination or direction was given or made, or within such further time as the Supreme Court allows, on application made not later than 1 month after the expiration of the said 21 days.

54. Security for appeals - (1) An appellant must lodge security with the Registrar of the District Court.

(2) The amount of security is to be set under the Rules of Court, which may exempt appellants who are on legal aid, or on any other grounds, from the payment of the security.

(3) If the required security is not lodged within 7 days of the service of the notice of appeal, or within such further time as in special cases the Registrar of the District Court may permit, that Registrar must notify the Registrar of the Supreme Court of the failure, and the notice of appeal is then deemed to be abandoned.

(4) As soon as security is lodged, the Registrar of the District Court must forward to the Registrar of the Supreme Court all of the following:

- (a) a copy of the pleadings;
- (b) a copy, signed by the District Court Judge, of the Judge's Notes; and
- (c) any affidavits and exhibits in the Registrar's custody.

55. Cross-appeals - (1) It is not necessary for a respondent to give notice of cross-appeal, but if a respondent intends to contend that the decision of the Court below should be varied, the respondent must give notice of his or her intention to all parties to the appeal.

(2) The omission to give notice within a reasonable time does not affect the authority of the Supreme Court, but the Court may adjourn the appeal for the notice of cross-appeal to be served, and may make an order as to costs.

56. Procedure where appeal not prosecuted - (1) If the appellant does not prosecute the appeal with due diligence, the respondent has the right to apply to the Supreme Court to dismiss the appeal.

(2) If the appellant does not appear at the time appointed for hearing the appeal the Supreme Court has authority to dismiss the appeal.

(3) In any case to which this section applies, the Supreme Court has authority to order that costs determined by the Court be paid by the appellant to the respondent.

57. Procedure on hearing of appeal - (1) All appeals are to proceed by way of a rehearing.

(2) If any question of fact is involved in an appeal, the evidence taken in the District Court bearing on the question must, subject to any special order, be brought before the Supreme Court as follows:

- (a) as to any evidence given orally - by the production of a copy of the District Court Judge's notes, or such other materials as the Supreme Court requires; and
- (b) as to any evidence taken by affidavit and as to any exhibits - by the production of the affidavits and exhibits.

(3) Despite subsection (2), the Supreme Court may in its discretion rehear the whole or any part of the evidence.

(4) The Supreme Court has full discretionary power to receive further evidence upon questions of fact, either by oral evidence or by affidavit, or by evidence taken in accordance with the rules of the Supreme Court.

58. Further powers of Supreme Court on hearing of appeal - (1) On the hearing of an appeal the Supreme Court has authority in relation to all of the following:

- (a) to order a rehearing of the case in the District Court upon such terms as it thinks fit;
- (b) to order that judgment be entered in the District Court for either party;
- (c) to make a final or other order on such terms as it thinks proper, to ensure the determination on the merits of the real questions in dispute between the parties; and
- (d) to make such order as to costs as it thinks proper.

(2) The Supreme Court has authority to make the orders under subsection (1) even if the notice of appeal specifies that part only of the determination or direction be reversed or varied, and such powers may be exercised in favour of all or any of the respondents or parties, although those respondents or parties may not have appealed from or complained of the determination or direction.

59. Court appealed from to be advised of determination - (1) The Registrar of the Supreme Court must transmit to the Registrar of the District Court a memorandum of the determination of the Supreme Court, and the determination is to be regarded for the purposes of this Act as if it had been given by the District Court.

(2) The Registrar of the Supreme Court must also return to the Registrar of the District Court all affidavits and exhibits provided for the purposes of the appeal.

60. Stay of proceedings on appeal - A notice of appeal does not operate as a stay of proceedings under the judgment or order appealed from unless any of the following apply:

- (a) a District Court Judge orders a stay of proceedings;
- (b) the amount of the judgment or order appealed from and its costs is deposited with the Registrar of the District Court; or
- (c) security is given to the satisfaction of Registrar of the District Court for that amount.

63. (2) If a conviction, judgment or order is entered or made by a Judge or a Fa'amasino Fesoasoani, and a warrant of any kind is granted in relation to the conviction, judgement or order by another Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani, no action lies against the Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani who granted the warrant by reason of any defect in the conviction, judgment or order, or of any want of jurisdiction in the Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani who entered or made it.

(3) A person claiming to have been injured by an act done by a Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani in excess of jurisdiction or without jurisdiction, is not entitled to take action in that regard in the District Court.

(4) In any action brought against a Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani by a person claiming to have been injured by an act done in excess of jurisdiction or without jurisdiction, the onus of proving the excess or want of jurisdiction lies upon the person alleging it.

65. Indemnity to Judges and Fa'amasino Fesoasoani - (1) A Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani against whom a judgment has been entered to pay damages or costs to any person injured as a result of any act done in excess of jurisdiction or without jurisdiction, is to be indemnified by the State to the full amount of the judgment, if the Supreme Court certifies both of the following:

- (a) that the Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani acted in good faith and with the belief that the matter was within the applicable jurisdiction; and
- (b) that the circumstances were such that the Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani ought fairly and reasonably to be excused.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) apply if a claim against a Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani is settled at any stage of the proceedings, but in such a case the Supreme Court has authority to certify that the indemnity should be for a lesser sum than the amount of the settlement.

(3) Application for a certificate under this section may be made by a Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani at any time to the Supreme Court in Chambers.

(4) A copy of the application must be served by the Judge or Fa'amasino Fesoasoani on the Attorney-General, who is entitled to appear and oppose it.
